

BIOGRAPHY

Michelle Droz is on a mission. She is an engaging, accomplished national speaker and presenter. She is an activist on the legislative front fighting for healthcare, human and female rights. Life started as an orphan found on a doorstep in rural Korea. Eventually adopted, she was raised in a small town outside of Chicagoland area. In the orphanage, she was exposed to many contagious diseases. Michelle has traveled multiple times in Washington DC to lobby for funding for preventable diseases. She has advocated for extreme poverty issues as a Congressional District Leader through the ONE Campaign. Michelle has been a host, emcee and speaker for many events specific to advocacy, special education rights and for non-profit causes. Ms. Droz joined the Caucus Board in October 2021.
