SAN MATEO COUNTY
API CAUCUS

TO: Leadership/Youth in Government High School Advisor/Counselors & Prospective interns
RE: 2022 Public Service and Leadership Internship Program

Summary:

Leading city mayors, elected officials, and professionals teach leadership and public service training courses each Summer. The San Mateo County Asian Pacific Islanders Caucus hosts this annual program. Throughout the program, interns will be introduced to the different aspects and essences of public service including responsibilities and effective leadership. Upon graduation, students will have acquired the initial skills to begin their career as leaders in public service or private sector. This unique program includes lectures and interactive workshops supported by practical exercises, projects, tours, and networking events. Interns will further their strengths in public speaking and presentation. Space is extremely limited and it is a competitive program. Participants will be selected by an application process.

Who:

- Interns are young adults from high school through college.

Details:

- Prospective interns must submit their resume and letter of interest to smcapicaucus@gmail.com. The course will typically run for approximately six weeks during the summer. Each week will focus on a different topic and coursework including, but not limited to, homework assignments, field trips, projects affiliated with government offices, and will culminate with a graduation ceremony.

Location:

- Locations of tours, field trips, and graduation details to be determined.
